CLAIM FOR PUNITIVE DAMAGES AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS

148. Defendants UNITED and UAL repeat, reiterate and reallege each and every response heretofore made to each and every paragraph of Plaintiffs' Fourth Amended Flight 175 Master Complaint, designated as paragraphs numbered "1" through "147" inclusive, with the same force and effect as through more fully set forth at length herein.

149. Deny each and every allegation set forth in paragraph "149" of the Plaintiffs' Fourth Amended Flight 175 Master Liability Complaint and respectfully refer all matters of law set forth therein to the Court.

150. Deny each and every allegation set forth in paragraph "150" of the Plaintiffs' Fourth Amended Flight 175 Master Liability Complaint and respectfully refer all matters of law set forth therein to the Court.

AS AND FOR A FIRST DEFENSE

151. Plaintiffs' Fourth Amended Flight 175 Master Liability Complaint fails to allege facts sufficient to state an actionable cause of action against UNITED and UAL.

AS AND FOR A SECOND DEFENSE

152. Public Law 107-42, "The Air Transportation Safety And System Stabilization Act," provides an exclusive federal cause of action for all claims arising from the terrorist-related aircraft crashes of September 11, 2001, and limits the amount of damages recoverable from UNITED and UAL to the amount of its liability insurance coverage.

153. To the extent that Plaintiffs' Fourth Amended Flight 175 Master Liability Complaint asserts a cause of action other than that provided for by the aforesaid legislation, such cause of action must be dismissed as a matter of law.

AS AND FOR A THIRD DEFENSE

154. Plaintiffs' alleged damages were caused by the unforeseeable, intervening and/or superseding criminal acts of third parties, who were not under the care, custody, control, or supervision of UNITED and UAL and therefore, UNITED and UAL cannot be held liable for said damages.

AS AND FOR A FOURTH DEFENSE

155. That the Federal Aviation Act of 1958, P.L. 85-726, 72 Stat. 731, formerly codified at 49 U.S.C. Section 1301, et. seq., now recodified and incorporated into 49 U.S.C. 40101, et. seq., together with the amendments to same and the regulations promulgated thereunder, establish the uniform and exclusive standards that air carriers must follow with respect to aviation safety and security and such federal standards implicitly preempt any State common law or statutory standards purporting to govern same.

156. UNITED's and UAL's compliance with the aforesaid federal standards precludes a finding of liability against them.

AS AND FOR A FIFTH DEFENSE

157. That if any of Plaintiffs' claims relate to rates, routes or services as set forth in the 1978 Airline Deregulation Act, formerly codified as 49 U.S.C. 1305, now recodified and incorporated into 49 U.S.C. 41713(b)(1), then Plaintiffs' right to assert such claims are preempted by same.

AS AND FOR A SIXTH DEFENSE

158. That if the Plaintiffs intend to assert that common law or statutory law of the individual States requires air carrier to implement security procedures that are different from the obligations imposed by the aforestated federal statutes and regulations, that claim must be dismissed since it would constitute an unconstitutional burden on interstate air commerce.

AS AND FOR A SEVENTH DEFENSE

159. That to the extent that Plaintiffs are able to assert a colorable claim under federal law and/or a claim that is not preempted by same, then in accordance with the provisions of Public Law 107-42, "The Air Transportation Safety And System Stabilization Act," the liability of UNITED and UAL shall be limited to their equitable share of their fault, and/or proportionate share, if any, to be determined in accordance with the relative culpability of each and every party or non-party, causing or contributing to the total liability claimed by Plaintiffs in accordance with the applicable State law.

AS AND FOR AN EIGHTH DEFENSE

160. That to the extent that Plaintiffs are able to assert a colorable claim under federal law and/or a claim that is not preempted by same, then in accordance with the provisions of Public Law 107-42, "The Air Transportation Safety And System Stabilization Act," any claim for past or future costs or expenses incurred or to be incurred for loss of earnings or other economic loss must be reduced by the amount of same that has been or can be replaced or indemnified in whole or in part by collateral sources in accordance with the applicable State law.

AS AND FOR A NINTH DEFENSE

161. That to the extent that Plaintiffs are able to assert a colorable claim under federal law and/or a claim that is not preempted by same, then in accordance with the provisions of Public Law 107-42, "The Air Transportation Safety And System Stabilization Act," if Plaintiffs release or enter into a covenant not to sue or enforce a judgment with any other persons claimed to be liable for the death of Plaintiffs' decedent, Plaintiffs' damages, if any, otherwise recoverable against UNITED and UAL must be reduced by the greater of the amount stipulated by the release or the covenant, the amount of the consideration paid for it, or the amount of any released tortfeasor's equitable share of recoverable damages in accordance with the applicable State law.

AS AND FOR A TENTH DEFENSE

162. That if a claim has been filed or submitted on behalf of any Plaintiffs' decedent with the "September 11th Victim Compensation Fund of 2001" as provided for by Public Law 107-42, "The Air Transportation Safety And System Stabilization Act," then the right to file a civil action in this Court for damages sustained as a result of the terrorist-related aircraft crashes of September 11, 2001 has been waived.

AS AND FOR AN ELEVENTH DEFENSE

163. That Plaintiffs' "Count Seven" subtitled "Claim for Wrongful Death and Survival Damages Based on Res Ipsa Loquitor," fails to state a claim upon which relief can be granted.

AS AND FOR A TWELFTH DEFENSE

164. Since UNITED and UAL were not in actual possession of the aircraft at the time of the crash, UNITED's and UAL's liability is limited pursuant to 49 U.S.C.A. §44112 (2002).

AS AND FOR A THIRTEENTH DEFENSE

165. That the liability of UNITED and UAL is limited in that it cannot exceed that which is set forth in any stipulations, orders, and/or judgments entered by the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Illinois. The provisions of any stipulations, orders or judgments entered by the Bankruptcy Court are binding on the parties to this litigation.

AS AND FOR A FOURTEENTH DEFENSE

166. That the Fourth Amended Flight 175 Master Liability Complaint and/or each individual wrongful death and/or personal injury complaint should be dismissed on the ground that no action may be maintained against UNITED and/or UAL because of the Order Confirming Debtors' Second Amended Joint Plan of Reorganization Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the United States Bankruptcy Code, In re: UAL Corporation et. al., Case No. 02B48191 (Bankr. N.D. Ill. Jan. 20, 2006), and the provisions therein, including specifically Section X.B., Discharge of Claims and Termination of Interests, which permanently enjoined and discharged all claims against UNITED and UAL as a reorganized debtor, except to the extent that certain Plaintiffs asserting a claim are subject to any Stipulation and Agreed Order Concerning the Debtor's Objections by certain 9/11 claimants in the Bankruptcy Court, and those certain Plaintiffs' recovery is limited to available insurance proceeds.

AS AND FOR A FIFTEENTH DEFENSE

167. That to the extent any of Plaintiffs' decedents were employed with UNITED at the time of the flight in question, such claims are governed by and/or precluded by the applicable Workers' Compensation Law and/or written waivers.

AS AND FOR A SIXTEENTH DEFENSE

168. Plaintiffs and/or the decedents' next of kin named as claimants in the Plaintiffs' Fourth Amended Flight 175 Master Liability Complaint lack capacity and/or standing to maintain this action.

AS AND FOR A SEVENTEENTH DEFENSE

169. Plaintiffs' alleged damages were remote and not a reasonably foreseeable consequence of any alleged conduct by UNITED and as such, UNITED owed no duty to Plaintiffs as a matter of law and cannot be held liable for Plaintiffs' alleged damages.

AS AND FOR AN EIGHTEENTH DEFENSE

170. The Plaintiffs' Fourth Amended Flight 175 Master Liability Complaint and all causes of action therein should be dismissed on the ground that Plaintiffs have failed to join all necessary and indispensable parties.

AS AND FOR A NINETEENTH DEFENSE

171. Plaintiffs' claims for punitive damages are barred because the applicable Federal and/or State laws regarding the alleged conduct in question in this action are too vague to permit the imposition of punitive damages, and because the applicable Federal and/or State laws, rules and procedures regarding punitive damages deny due process, impose criminal penalties without requisite protection and procedural safeguards, violate the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments of the United States

Constitution and counterpart clauses of the applicable State Constitutions as well as any Excessive Fines Clauses, and place an unreasonable burden on interstate commerce.

AS AND FOR A TWENTIETH DEFENSE

172. Damages, compensatory or punitive may be barred or limited by applicable state law as may be derived by this Court from New York law, including its choice of law principles.

AS AND FOR A TWENTY-FIRST DEFENSE

173. Plaintiffs' claims for punitive damages have been dismissed by an order of this Court dated July 3, 2007. As such, Plaintiffs' claims for punitive damages are barred.

AS AND FOR A TWENTY-SECOND DEFENSE

174. This Court lacks jurisdiction over Defendants UNITED and UAL due to the improper service of process of a Plaintiff's individual complaint.

AS AND FOR A TWENTY-THIRD DEFENSE

175. The alleged damages complained of were caused by the negligence or intentional conduct of parties other than UNITED and UAL and for whom UNITED and UAL are not responsible; therefore, UAL and UNITED are not liable to Plaintiffs or, in the alternative UNITED and UAL's liability to Plaintiffs, if any, should be reduced in accordance with applicable law.

AS AND FOR A TWENTY-FOURTH DEFENSE

176. The alleged damages complained of were not proximately caused by any negligence or culpable conduct on the part of UNITED and UAL, their agents, or employees.

AS AND FOR A TWENTY-FIFTH DEFENSE

177. UNITED and UAL are not liable to Plaintiffs because UNITED and UAL complied with all applicable government regulations in effect at the time of the events described in the Fourth Amended Flight 175 Master Liability Complaint.

AS AND FOR A TWENTY-SIXTH DEFENSE

178. These Defendants' role in implementing federal security measures was limited. If other parties and/or entities responsible for other component parts of that system failed to identify, assess appropriately or communicate the information and direction needed to prevent the hijacking of Flight 175 by terrorists who planned to use it as a missile, then any liability finding against these Defendants would be precluded as a matter of law and fact.

AS AND FOR A TWENTY-EIGHTH DEFENSE

179. To the extent that Plaintiffs are entitled to claim any damages under New York law, such damages are not recoverable in accordance with New York law from Defendants that have provided minimal security measures in response to reasonably foreseeable threats. Since the security measures implemented by the Defendants in accordance with federal law far exceeded the minimal measures required of private parties under New York law, Plaintiffs are precluded from any recovery whatsoever.

AS AND FOR A TWENTY-NINTH DEFENSE

180. The aviation security measures that are the subject of this action were federally mandated and a part of a federal response to terrorist attacks on our nation. UNITED and UAL's implementation of the federally mandated aviation security measures assisted the federal government in a police and/or national defense function. As such, UNITED and UAL are immune from suit and are not liable for the claims herein.

AS AND FOR A THIRTIETH DEFENSE

181. Plaintiffs' alleged damages were caused by an act of war.

AS AND FOR A THIRTY-FIRST DEFENSE

182. Plaintiffs' claims are barred by the state secrets doctrine.

AS AND FOR A THIRTY-SECOND DEFENSE

183. Plaintiffs' Complaint must be dismissed to the extent that relevant evidence required by UNITED and UAL to mount their defense is prohibited from disclosure by 14 C.F.R. § 1520 et seq. as Sensitive Security Information.

AS AND FOR A THIRTY-THIRD DEFENSE

184. To the extent Plaintiffs' alleged damages were caused or contributed to by the acts or omissions of public authorities or others acting under color of law, UNITED and UAL cannot be held liable for Plaintiffs' alleged damages.

AS AND FOR A THIRTY-FOURTH DEFENSE

185. UNITED and UAL are not liable for damages caused through the fault of any other parties or non-parties, including damages caused by terrorists.

AS AND FOR A THIRTY-FIFTH DEFENSE

186. Plaintiffs' Claims are barred by the applicable Statute of Limitations.

AS AND FOR A THIRTY-SIXTH DEFENSE

187. That to the extent that any of the separate defenses to the allegations of the Plaintiffs' Fourth Amended Flight 175 Master Liability Complaint asserted herein on behalf of UNITED and UAL are deemed affirmative defenses, they are specifically realleged, reiterated and incorporated herein as affirmative defenses.

AS AND FOR A THIRTY-SEVENTH DEFENSE

188. UNITED and UAL reserve the right to add affirmative defenses as necessary based on information obtained during investigation or discovery.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION OF FOREIGN LAW

189. Pursuant to Rule 44.1 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedures, UNITED and UAL, hereby give notice that issues concerning the law of a foreign country may be raised in this action.

WHEREFORE, UNITED and UAL demand judgment dismissing the Plaintiffs' Fourth Amended Flight 175 Master Liability Complaint together with costs and disbursements incurred in defending same or alternatively, demand that a jury apportion the respective culpability of the parties and non-parties and that the Court and/or jury
